Jury Information

Please e-mail 4 J-PEG images that best represent your work and a 5th image/rendering of your booth display to Amalie at amaliedorn@aol.com. If you are sharing a space we will need the same information from your booth partner. This show is open to artists of all media type. If you cannot e-mail your images please send 3"x 5" prints representing your line.

Special attention will be on New Mexican craftspeople and artists but everyone is welcome to apply. Signs will be hung distinguishing local craftspeople. Space is limited so get your application and deposit in early.

A non partisan committee will review each application and approve them on a rolling basis. You will receive notification of your review status within 2 weeks of applying.

Your booth deposit check must accompany your application – if sharing a booth one person will be accountable for payments.

Images for Advertising and Website

We would like to use at least one digital image for advertising on our website please list which image you would like to use and sign below authorizing us to use that image. Also if you have a website we will provide a link.
